

Creative Automation

About us

Creative Automation was established in 2008, specializing in the field of supplying and installing smart systems, and giving smart solutions that suit each customer under the slogan

Innovative Minds .. Creating Solutions

Since that date, Creative Automation has implemented a lot of special projects in various cities of the country, and our customers have witnessed us with good treatment, sincerity in work and competitive prices commensurate with quality.

Since that date, Creative has expanded its activities and projects to include hotels and industrial automation and is now a leader in the fields of home and industrial automation, and our employees are highly qualified and experienced, which we have gained over many years.

We consider ourselves advisors to our clients, advising them and giving them ideas that serve them, improve their lifestyle and save them money and effort, and if our client decides to work with us, we will always be at his best thought.

We cherish our values and take them as a basis for dealing, and not just words written

Our Vision

Smart home is enjoyed everywhere

CREATIVE has the vision that the smart home technology will be enjoyed by everyone, making their life easier, more comfortable, more secure, more achievable and more peace of mind. Through this, everyone could save their trouble and save their time and could develop better life with their family.

Our Mission

Smart home is coming now, people are starting to try to understand what it is. But because there are so many smart home standards and protocols and products out there, people do not know how to enjoy the technology because of the concern of security, privacy, compatibility and interoperability.

The mission of CREATIVE is here to provide the real smart home products that will make users feel easy and happy to enjoy the smart home world without the worry of the above-mentioned concerns.

CREATIVE has the vision that the smart home technology will be enjoyed by everyone, making their life easier, more comfortable, more secure, more achievable and more peace of mind. Through this, everyone could save their trouble and save their time and could develop better life with their family.
